Spring 2021 Call for Applications
KHC Student Curatorial Fellowship

Student Curatorial Intern Description: The Harriet and Kenneth Kupferberg Center (KHC) is accepting applications for a student curatorial fellow for the spring 2021 semester. Applicants should be a current QCC student or a recent QCC graduate from the museum and gallery studies, art and design, liberal studies or history departments, or a related discipline. During the spring 2021 semester, the curatorial fellow will research material to be included in the online Library Guide that is connected to the KHC’s previous exhibition, Survivance and Sovereignty on Turtle Island: Engaging with Contemporary Native American Art. This includes identifying appropriate websites, texts, videos, and other multimedia sources of interest to QCC’s students and faculty.

Faculty Supervisors: Students will work directly with the KHC’s Executive Director, Dr. Laura Cohen, and Kat Griefen, Faculty Lead of QCC’s Museum & Gallery Studies Program and Lecturer in QCC’s Art and Design Department; as well as interact with KHC’s support staff and QCC’s Librarians.

General Requirements: The fellowship begins the week of February 1, 2021 and runs until May 14, 2021. While the College’s campus remains closed during the pandemic, all projects shall be conducted remotely and the fellow shall complete a weekly timesheet to document all hours worked. The fellow is expected to virtually meet with the KHC’s Executive Director each week to provide regular updates. Applications will only be considered from current QCC students as well recent QCC graduates within the past three years (2017-2020).

Stipend: Upon completion of the projects and tasks by the assigned due dates, the fellow will receive a $1,500 stipend in two payments. To receive the stipend, QCC requires fellows to provide proof of authorization to work in the United States (US), as well as possess a US social security number prior to the start of the internship. International students should contact QCC’s Center for International Affairs, Immigration & Study Abroad for additional guidance.

Application Deadline: Students must apply by January 8, 2021 by e-mailing a letter of interest and brief resume to KHC@qcc.cuny.edu.

The KHC’s mission is to use the lessons of the Holocaust to educate current and future generations about the ramifications of unbridled prejudice, racism, and stereotyping. For more information about the Center, please visit our website: http://khc.qcc.cuny.edu/
