Spring 2021 Call for Applications
KHC Student Curatorial Internships

Student Curatorial Intern Description: The Harriet and Kenneth Kupferberg Center (KHC) is accepting applications for up to two (2) student curatorial interns for the spring 2021 semester. Applicants should be enrolled in museum and gallery studies, art and design, liberal studies, history, or a related discipline. During the spring 2021 semester, the interns will review select KHC past exhibition catalogs to determine the best content to be showcased on the KHC’s website, as well as conduct other curatorial assignments as directed.

Faculty Supervisor: Students will work directly with the KHC’s Executive Director, Dr. Laura Cohen, as well as the KHC’s support staff and graphic designer.

General Requirements: The internship begins the week of February 1, 2021 and runs until May 14, 2021. While the College’s campus remains closed during the pandemic, all projects shall be conducted remotely and the interns shall complete a weekly timesheet to document all hours worked. Students are expected to virtually meet with the KHC’s Executive Director each week to provide regular updates on their assigned projects. Applicants must be students currently enrolled at either QCC or another institution. Please contact the KHC for more information about eligibility requirements to receive course credit.

Stipend: Upon completion of the projects and tasks by the assigned due dates, interns will receive a $1,000 stipend in two payments. To receive the stipend, QCC requires interns to provide proof of authorization to work in the United States (US), as well as possess a US social security number prior to the start of the internship. International students should contact QCC’s Center for International Affairs, Immigration & Study Abroad for additional guidance.

Application Deadline: Applicants must apply by January 8, 2021 by e-mailing a letter of interest and brief resume to KHC@qcc.cuny.edu.

The KHC’s mission is to use the lessons of the Holocaust to educate current and future generations about the ramifications of unbridled prejudice, racism, and stereotyping. For more information about the Center, please visit our website: http://khc.qcc.cuny.edu/
