

Combatting Antisemitism

As of January 23, 2025

U.S. National Strategy to Counter Antisemitism

In May 2023, the Biden-Harris Administration released the first-ever U.S. National Strategy to Combat Antisemitism. The Strategy outlines a whole-of-society effort to combat antisemitism, including unprecedented, coordinated, and bold actions that will be implemented across government agencies, as well as calls to action for public officials, private sector leaders, and Americans from every sector, industry, and walk of life. The Strategy—which reflects input from over 1,000 Jewish community stakeholders, faith and civil rights leaders, State and local officials, and more—also serves as a blueprint for tackling other forms of bigotry, hate, and bias that fuel toxic divisions in America.
