

List of Organizations that Accept Book Donations

*The KHC does not accept any book donations.
Below are other organizations you can contact directly.*

American Jewish Historical Society (AJHS)

<https://ajhs.org/>

Established in 1892, the AJHS archive reflects the history of the Jewish presence in the United States from 1654 to the present. They accept materials in all formats which illuminate trends of wide-ranging impact, representative lived experiences, and breakthrough moments or turning points of American Jewish life.

For questions about the donation or collecting policies, please contact Melanie Meyers, Chair of Collections and Engagement via mmeyers@ajhs.org or submit an inquiry online by clicking <https://ajhs.org/our-collections/donate-a-collection/>.

American Sephardi Federation (ASF)

<https://americansephardi.org/>

The ASF documents, preserves, and perpetuates the history, traditions, and rich mosaic culture of Greater Sephardic communities as an integral part of the Jewish experience. They collect books relating to Sephardi and Mizrahi History.

For more information about their collection policies or for donation inquiries, contact info@americansephardi.org or call them at +1 (212) 294-8350.

Leo Baeck Institute (LBI)

<https://www.lbi.org/>

The LBI is a research library and archive focused on the history of German-speaking Jews. They welcome donations of books that focus on the following major subject categories: historical, philosophical, religious, social, cultural, political, and economic expressions of the German-Jewish tradition as well as books by German-speaking Jewish authors.

The Harriet and Kenneth Kupferberg Holocaust Center
Queensborough Community College—CUNY
222-05 56th Avenue, Bayside, NY 11364
E-mail: khc@qcc.cuny.edu • <https://khc.qcc.cuny.edu/>

To ensure that your book collection can be accepted, please send a list of book titles you are planning to donate to Renate Evers, Director of Collections, at revers@lbi.cjh.org.

YIVO Institute for Jewish Research (YIVO)

<https://www.yivo.org/>

YIVO preserves, studies, shares, and perpetuates knowledge of the history and culture of East European Jewry worldwide. They collect books relating to all aspects of Jewish history and culture around the world, and are particularly interested in materials relating to the everyday life, culture, and history of East European Jews and their descendants in the Americas and worldwide.

If you would like to donate books to the YIVO Library, please contact reference@yivo.org.

Yiddish Book Center

<https://www.yiddishbookcenter.org/>

The Yiddish Book Center recovers, preserves, teaches, and celebrates Yiddish literature and culture to advance a fuller understanding of Jewish history and identity. They accept Yiddish books of all sorts, regardless of title or condition (provided they're not covered with visible mold).

To donate books to the Center, email them at bookdonations@yiddishbookcenter.org or call them at 413-256-4900, ext. 104.

The Harriet and Kenneth Kupferberg Holocaust Center
Queensborough Community College—CUNY
222-05 56th Avenue, Bayside, NY 11364
E-mail: khc@qcc.cuny.edu • <https://khc.qcc.cuny.edu/>